

GYMNASTS.

-----
 If your'e interested in gym, these pictures will appeal to you. They show the prize-winning team at Illinois performing some of the difficult tricks that won them the title of America's best amateur gymnasts. Here's Harry Koehnemann- ace of the side-horse- and he's completely defeated the crippling scourge of paralysis which is the biggest feat of all. Captained by the greatest all-round collegiate expert in the country, these <sup>Linson</sup> ~~athletes~~ athletes put up a show that is absolutely first class. So if you want to keep young and healthy, take a tip from ~~them~~ this all-fit brigade from Illinois University.

DOG FASHIONS.

 It seems that fashions are still going to the dogs. And what's more the dogs don't seem to mind as the designer measures them up for new spring outfits. April showers have inspired a reversible raincoat like this- just for the pampered pets. Here's another slick creation, for the dog days. But this evening suit ~~suit~~ with tails and tie is just the thing for a night club. So even dogs have to worship at the altar of fashion- but let's hope their masters will never see them like this. And lastly- the lowdown on Siamese twin suitings- a doggy doublet and no mistake.
