Some of the best riders in the wild and woolly west are in this rodeo. There's Tom Mix of the Movies and he's quite a rider. These broncos take a bit of handling, it's a tough job but most of the cowboys are winners, though sometimes there's a spill when dismounting. Out here, at New Hall, California, most of the boys are successful, a tribute to the long list of bronco riders in the bucking show. Some are tossed and not content with that, the vicious animal wants to gore ~~him~~^{them} too.
