

684

NINEPENNY LUNCH.

-----
This is what you might call the groundwork for a luncheon whose ingredients cost only ninepence a head. It is really the first step towards a simpler form of diet for these days of shorter purses. ~~This is what you might call the groundwork for a luncheon whose ingredients cost only ninepence a head. It is really the first step towards a simpler form of diet for these days of shorter purses.~~ ~~and Empire Produce~~ Actually this is one of the famous Literary Luncheons-- and the price fills a long felt want because authors can seldom afford to eat at the swagger places they put in their books. This is a succulent thought- the exclusive kitchens which have been accustomed to pamper the silver lining of a ducal stomach now do things with things like tripe. The starting gun has gone. By eating in crowds, you save money and prevent waste. The titled, the wealthy, and the intelligent are getting full for 9d. And they found it all so good they declared they would recommend it to their friends.

BADMINTON.

-----
Badminton makes a new bid for popularity. Skator Erikson, in the near court, is Pacific Coast Champion-- Guy Reed is the Pasadena professional, and in this game at Pasadena they're demonstrating how the game should be played. Only nobody's watching. Let's see how it's done in slow motion. Service-- Now come back slowly to hit that soaring bird right on the bazooka. Badminton isn't all swiping. Sometimes a little teeny tip over the net does the trick. ,No--- he's got it back nicely. Hurry up!.