

KING?

Another Royal inspection of war preparations. The King visited the London docks and saw the disposition of troops at strategic points in these vital centres of British trade. With the King is Lord Strathcona

On the following day the King travelled to the naval docks at ~~Portsmouth~~ where he inspected warships of British, French, Polish and Dutch nationality.

During the course of the inspection an air raid alarm was sounded, and in accordance with orders the entire personnel of the camp took cover.

In the afternoon the King visited a station of the Fleet Air Arm, ~~where~~ where he was conducted by Rear-Admiral Bell Davies, V.C.

HM also inspected warships of British, French, Polish & Dutch nationality

copy of 2 4/11/40