

RIVER HOME GUARD.

Another side of Britain's preparedness! The Home Guard has its Navy. This is the patrol on the Upper Thames --- a review by their Commanding Officer, Rear-Admiral Sir Basil Brooke. Forty boats of various types took part in the parade.

Thus the river has become another stronghold in Britain.... without losing any of its picturesque qualities. After the review Admiral Brooke expressed his pleasure at the efficiency of this little inland fleet.

Another occasion on the Upper reaches of the Thames.... the King and the Queen and the two Princesses inspected a section of the patrol between Henley and Windsor. The usual sightseers at ~~the~~ Lock had the opportunity of an intimate glimpse of the Royal party. This was the first occasion on which the King and Queen have been on the river above Windsor.
