

CANADIAN AIR FORCE.

More Canadians have arrived in Britain after completing their training in Canada under the Empire Air Training Scheme. A hefty and capable-looking detachment of keen young men -- just one of the many groups arriving in this country to take a series of trips over the Continent.

2
America's <sup>own</sup> flying programme is being pushed along with the same vigour. The Army Air Corps Finishing Schools are turning out magnificent pilots in hundreds. Each one is a potential menace to the Axis.