

LORD LOTHIAN FUNERAL.

Military honours were paid to Lord Lothian at his funeral in Washington. Britain's Ambassador died with tragic suddenness --- in the midst of a brilliant period of service for his country.

But before he died, Lord Lothian had made an outstanding success of his job of promoting understanding and friendship between Britain and America. Britain has lost one of her greatest Ambassadors --- ~~but the fruits of his work will be gathering in~~

PETAINE AND LAVAL.

Pictures from Vichy --- one of the very few films to come out ~~of the hands of~~ of unoccupied France. They show Marshal Petain in conference with Laval <sup>v. Laval</sup> Since the picture was taken Laval has been dismissed, <sup>arrested</sup> ~~imprisoned~~ and released ~~...~~

KING AT SHEFFIELD.

The King and Queen have paid a visit to Sheffield --- the practical expression of sympathy in a town which suffered heavily in one of the recent concentrated blitzes. Their Majesties talked with many who have been made homeless by Nazi bombs --- but as usual, everybody seems to be cheerful and smiling., blitz or no blitz.
