

747

ENGLISH SPEAKING UNION LUNCH.

The secretary of State for Air - Sir Archibald Sinclair - was the guest of honour at a luncheon given by the English Speaking Union at Grosvenor House - ~~the~~ ~~chair was taken by Sir James Lytchell~~ - The luncheon was attended by some distinguished officers of the Royal Air Force . Other well known personalities present included Lord Nuffield - Commander Hitchcock - Naval Attache' and Brigadier General Scanlon - Military Attache' to the United States of America.

Sir Archibald Sinclair ^{has many encouraging things} ~~had some encouraging things~~ to say about the ~~future air aspect of the war.~~

~~the future of the~~

Spirit of the Empire Air Force.