

MEN'S HAT FASHIONS. 747

4
Here's an idea from Chicago--- Yes, really a new idea. Twin headgear for Miss America and the boy friend-- Two hearts that beat as one-- two hats that look as one-- so what could be fairer than that? Do you see what we see or is somebody pulling our leg? At all events, this is the last word in fashions-- don't you think?

MARINES DOG MASCOT.

1
It's far from a dog's life to be a mascot of marines. Sixteen months after joining the leathernecks, this ^{little} fellow has become a fully-fledged sergeant with the right to shout at whom he pleases. His promotion's made official by his commanding officer.

So gangway for this latest N.C.O.,-- America's No 1 soldier of the sea.

PRINCE OLAF WITH HIS FAMILY.

For the first time for many months Crown Prince Olaf of Norway is back again with members of his family---

2
The Prince flew across the Atlantic especially to visit his relatives. In this happy family group we see Prince Harald, Princess Ragnhild, Crown Princess Martha, Princess Astrid, and His Royal Highness Crown Prince Olaf.
