

KING ALFONSO BURIED IN ROME.

757

We have obtained from inside the enemy camp in Rome these pictures of the funeral of King Alfonso ~~XXXX~~ of Spain; the man who was born a king, ~~and who never finally renounced his right to the throne.~~ Following in the ~~royal~~ cortege are two sons --- Don Jaime and Don Juan. ~~The King had survived many attempts on his life one as he drove back to his Palace in Madrid after his wedding to an English Princess, in 1906.~~ ^{In} ~~April 1931~~ 1931 Alfonso went into voluntary exile to save his country from civil war. That war came to his people none the less, but Alfonso never returned. So he was buried in Rome and the King of Italy attended his funeral; and the dead king lies among the Italian people who helped to tear his country ~~into~~ pieces.
