

THE SWISS MISS MISSES THE BLITZES.

Blow the dust off your skis and skated; beat the moth out of ~~your~~ your fur-lined bootlaces ; ~~XX~~ this is taking you to the slalom ~~XXXX~~ contest back to St Moritz and the piping times of peace ~~/~~ Switzerland --- the land of loud yodels and soft hearts; the land of cold snow and hot conversation; the land ~~that~~ that only ~~has an air-raid warning when Italy's having the air-raid.~~ ~~has the smell of a plane when Milan hear the bang of a bomb.~~

Elvira Osirnig won the twisting race and Clara Bertsch was second;..... yo-ho for St Moritz where the Swiss misses miss all the blitzes ~~/~~

Twist the camera once again --- round to Arosa where the cavalry are having a horse race; one of the recreations of the Swiss Army in its long period of mobilization ~~/~~ Our Swiss cameraman wrote to say, ~~the~~ the obstacle race for officers was greatly to interest, ~~the~~ although the favourite lost and Lieutenant Buter he win; so it seems he doesn't like Lieutenant Suter but we don't care -- we don't even know him ~~/~~

Out to America --- Uncle Sam's boys are doing the same thing at Northfield in Vermont. Training cavalry in the snow --- temperature fourteen ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ below ~~/~~ Roughshod horses and slippery saddles.
 Americans call their Marines Leathernecks --- imagine what they call the cavalry ~~/~~ Shake the snow out of your riding boots and put on your waders.; in a lightning world tour of two places let's go tuna fishing in the Galapagos ~~/~~ It's a fisherman's Paradise. They've run into a ~~big~~ big Pacific school off the coast of Ecuador. It's either a fisherman's Paradise or they're all liars. ~~Say what? Is this a joke? Is this a joke?~~

~~Now you know what it's like to be a fisherman~~
 It looks like the people of Dorset, practicing for the invasion. ~~We have the invasion.~~
