

A CURE FOR THE BUDGET. Blues.

Sir Kingsley Wood has delivered his Budget speech and now we're all down for the count of ten - ten shillings. But we still refuse to burst into tears. After all - it's good news that the Greeks have decided to fight it out with the German bully; it's good news that in those rugged mountains the people of Jugo-Slavia have decided to face Hitler too; and at the same time kick Mussolini in the Albanian rearguard.

keep private It's good to hear that these new allies are getting ~~from a strong B.E.F. including the victorious troops from Tobruk and Bardia~~ from the ~~from the~~ including the victorious troops from Tobruk and Bardia - and that the Italian fleet that went out to stop them getting there got sunk.

So Hitler's got a war on three fronts ~~as well as on~~ — we know what he thinks of ~~at the~~ Mussolini. /