

KING AND TOMMY GUN.

The King and Queen paid a visit recently to an army training establishment, and in the course of his inspection his Majesty <sup>Saw a Tommy gun + tried it out himself.</sup> ~~tried out a Tommy gun.~~ Some say the German Tommy Guns in Greece were not so effective - but it depends who's using <sup>them.</sup> We'll still need all the automatic weapons we can get hold of.

CEYLON ZOO.

Our cameraman with the Fleet during a visit to Ceylon had a look round the Zoo at Colombo. One of the best exhibits was the Adjutant Stork who looks just like an adjutant. The crocodile seemed a bit annoyed about it. And the Navy had a convoy job with a couple of cubs. But the old Bear didn't care for the camera so he went into his air ~~XIX~~ raid shelter. All clear!

LADY LOUIS.

Lady Louis Mountbatten at the New Zealand Club; she was presenting to the New Zealand High Commissioner an ambulance provided through the <sup>Anzac</sup> ~~War~~ War Relief Fund. It's a bit more help from America - the ambulance was the <sup>877</sup> ~~877~~ of Arizona.
