TO-MORROW'S AIRMEN REVIEWED.

This was the attractive setting in Surrey for a special parade of the Air Cadets; they were being inspected by King Peter of Yugo-Slavia. We're full of praise for the Royal Air Force --- and rightly so; ~~and if you've got a squadron of the A.T.C. in your district, no doubt you'll agree --- that to-morrow's airmen look like being every bit as good.~~

~~These young men are tremendously keen; and if keenness and efficiency are born on the parade ground; you should feel that the future of Britain will be safe in the keeping of present day youth.~~

~~The parade finished with a march past; to-day Yugo-Slavia writhes under the heel of ^{German} ~~German~~ tyranny; ^{also} but these cadets are a part of their guarantee of freedom.~~
