

PIG SALE AND HORSE SHOW.

The pigs are having a good brush down - for they must look their best for the spring show and sale at Stirling.

Let's take a look at the ring where 30 elegant, pedigreed and commercial pigs are up for sale. And Stirling's oldest inhabitant ^{is} wasn't going to miss anything.

There was a smaller entry than usual, but prices were strong - so was the attendance. Buyers came from all parts of the country. At the prize-giving, the champion female fetched as much as £20 -

~~And near Glasgow, the National Stallion Show is in full swing ---~~ Thoroughbred stallions in the full glory of frills and furbellows are ⁱⁿ getting into tram ^{for the National Stallion Show at Glasgow.} like any ballet ~~girl~~ dancer before the rise of the curtain.

The show attracted a large crowd of experts in horseflesh. The judging was keen and spirited.

Mr James Kilpatrick again this year practically ran away with the show --- ~~his Craigie Independent was the Supreme Champion and the proud owner was the recipient of a handsome cup.~~ his Craigie Tipson won the Cawdor Cup his Craigie Independent carried away the prize for the Supreme Champion.
