

ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY ENTHRONED.

870

The peace and nobility of Canterbury -- the quiet of the Kentish countryside -- this was the traditional setting ~~xxxx~~ for the enthronement of the Archbishop of Canterbury.

The new Archbishop is Dr William Temple, former Archbishop of York -- He is the 96th Primate of All-England: his father, too, had held this most high Office.

The Archdeacon places the Lord Archbishop in the St Augustine's Throne.

In all, this remarkably young old lady has covered nearly 140,000 miles in the course of her job. She walks from nine to twelve miles a day, and has never worn shoes, but always clogs. The times old Jane has missed her round in all weathers, can be counted on the fingers of one hand.

In a snow blizzard once she was out tramping for 14 hours-- but she never missed delivering the mail to one single farm or house. That's a record -- that's tough going for ^a even/mere man. Now at 69 years of age, Old Jane is still going strong -- If she puts in much more overtime, she'll still be working at 100.
