CANDY.

Welcome home to the Gaumont British News Cameraman who has escaped from a prison camp in Tunisia. Edward Candy, who was reported missing when his ship sank while he was filming a Malta Convoy.

QUINS.

The famous Canadian quintuplets are in the news again --- taking part in a drive for the Canadian victory loan. They're growing up into attractive young ladies in a special concert they sang a little song, but my sisters and I don't talk about that.

CANADIAN PILOTS.

Parliament Hill in Ottawa is the scene of a new presentation of wings to aircrews by Prime Minister MacKenzie King. More power to the Empire Air Training Scheme --- more grand types to swell the ranks of the Royal Canadian Air Force. The planes are coming from the factories in unbelievable numbers; these are the men to fly them; Italy and Germany and Japan will know what air war really means in 1945.
