

PRINCE BERNHARD'S LATEST EFFORT.

952 S.P.A. 16/2/43 Sir V. Selwate.

From Canada comes this little picture interview with Prince Bernhard and the new baby Princess of the Netherlands: born to Princess Juliana in Ottawa the little princess continues the tradition of nearly a hundred years of girls only born into the Royal family. The other two daughters of the Royal house in exile are growing up into bonny children under the protection of the Maple Leaf

MRS. ROOSEVELT LAUNCHES THE YORKTOWN.

Mrs. Roosevelt launched the new American Aircraft-carrier Yorktown--- and America's First Lady shows <sup>ad</sup> determination in face of first-time failure. <sup>KQ</sup> This is successor to the previous Yorktown which did good work against the <sup>ps</sup> before being lost in the famous action at Midway Island

BOXING.

A little Anglo-American co-operation in America --- the Royal Navy versus men of the United States armed forces work out rivalry in the boxing ring. Goebbels is trying hard to breed trouble between us and our Allies --- but we're so <sup>fix</sup> friendly we even prefer to sock the referee KING AND CANADIANS.

Men of the Ontario Regiment and <sup>a</sup> the ~~the~~ Canadian Tank Brigade were recently inspected by the King at a camp in southern England. An encouraging sign of the times is the enormous number of tanks which equip just this one brigade.
