AMPHIBIAN TRAINING IN AMERICA.

One of the Camps in Massachussetts for the training of America's Engineer Amphibian Command: over the side with barrack bags used like water wings.

Then, landing exercises, ~~the~~ ⁱⁿ rehearsal for landing if the assault craft should be damaged and unable to make the shore. Into the water in full kit with rifles; some of the toughest fish in the sea have two legs and two arms --- and muscles of steel.

12.30 PM. Gen. V. Schuster.
