

INVESTITURE.

Another investiture by the King at Buckingham Palace for heroes in many fields of the war effort. Lt. Commander Goodman received the George Cross and the M.B.E. for gallantry, <sup>in his work</sup> ~~on live enemy mines.~~ <sub>of the mines</sub>

Lt. Colonel Alistair Pearson received <sup>no</sup> ~~no less than four~~ decorations at once --- D.S.O., two bars and the Military Cross. ~~Commanded airborne troops in North Africa and Italy.~~

Dame Trefusis Forbes, ~~the first woman member of the Order~~ <sup>became</sup> ~~becomes~~ Dame Commander. and these members of the crew of the submarine Unruffled all received the D.S.M. ~~Our submarines have done wonderful work since the war began; in the Pacific there will be increasing scope for their daring and skill.~~

CAROLE LOMBARD LAUNCH.

Carole Lombard met <sup>her</sup> ~~in~~ death in a plane crash while on a tour to sell War Bonds. ~~a~~ new ship has been named after her in the presence of her husband Clark Gable, and Robert Montgomery. The launching ceremony was performed by Irene Dunne --- a memory of a star whose death was a sad loss to the world of the cinema.

BOOMERANG PLANES.

One of the many varieties of warplanes used by the United Nations is the Boomerang --- designed and built in the Commonwealth of Australia. The Boomerang has been doing great work against the Japs--- and these are some of its tricks which demonstrate just how good it is.
