

H.M.S. NORFOLK HANDS OVER BATTLE ENSIGN.

1060

XXXXXX ~~XXXXXX~~ XXXX

Officers and men of H.M.S. Norfolk, in a ceremony at Norwich -- sequel to the part they played in the sinking of the Scharnhorst

Received by the Lord Mayor in the presence of their Captain -- Captain Bain --- they handed over to the city for safe keeping the proud tatters of the White Ensign which they flew in the action against the German battlecruiser. Norwich already holds the Ensign flown by H.M.S. Norfolk in her ~~action~~ engagement with the Bismarck

350 P.M.
29/12/44
Sir V. Schuster