

ROYAL OCCASIONS --- PRINCESS ELIZABETH MAKES HER FIRST PUBLIC SPEECH.

The Queen was accompanied by Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret Rose at an Empire Day Rally of three thousand children in the Windsor Home Park, ~~This is one day of the year which must be~~

reminding us that

~~made to mean more to the men and women than a mere occasion~~

can be the

~~the Union Jack,~~ the British Commonwealth of Nations ~~is the~~ world's greatest contribution towards peace.

In the meantime, they celebrated at Windsor with a Pipe Band And the traditional dance

The royal party drove away ~~sitting~~ in the carriage drawn by two of the Windsor Greys --- their first appearance since war began.

Another day was the occasion for Princess Elizabeth to make her first speech in public, introduced by Lord Iliffe

A tour of the wards, in which are so many babies who have found trouble early in life. But the Queen Elizabeth Hospital, like so many others, works unsparingly to lighten the burdens of each one of them --- however frail; or, ~~if it is that,~~ however tough.

4:10 P.M.
26/5/44
J. V. Scholtz