

OUR ARMIES LINK UP IN ITALY.

The scene is set for an historic moment in the campaign in Italy: the beachhead army from Anzio is linking up with the main Fifth Army front after four dogged, determined months of isolation. In the early days of the great drive north in Italy, General Alexander's strategy promises well. It's a great moment

62

Telephone linesmen establish land communication --- and that calls for another handshake. Sgt. Cameraman ~~Haggett of Beachhead~~ ^{Haggett of Beachhead} meets the American cameraman Irenburg ~~of the beachhead~~ ^{from the main front}; amid all the blood and sweat, ~~of great battles~~ ^{of great battles}, this is real cause for rejoicing. General Mark Clark was soon on the scene on this great day; for the morrow --- wish them all ^{luck} in the great battle they are fighting

5:55 PM.
30/5/44 Gen V. Schuster