

Strasbourg; capital of Alsace Lorraine; French tanks were the first in, after their advance over the Rhine plain; ~~the~~ the historic battleground city was occupied by American and French troops

There were many prisoners taken here, though not on the classic scale of a major victory. Among the prisoners were the German General Commanding Strasbourg and his staff.

~~across the Rhine from Strasbourg is another corner of the German Reich~~ across the Rhine from Strasbourg is another corner of the German Reich