

The Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr Butler, was in most people's thoughts, when he left for the House of Commons to reveal, in his second Budget, his financial plans for the coming months.

And now the budget-secrets are known - Mr Butler speaks of the need for higher production and increased exports to counter growing world ~~competition~~ competition. / SOUND.