

Horses train for great occasions--

CB 2016 V

April 28th. '53.

(LOCALS)

How often have we marvelled at the wonderful training and patience of our Police horses on crowded occasions? Here's the answer, at Imber Court, Surrey, where the horses are being prepared to face the many crowd-noises, rattles, ^{and} bells that will greet the Coronation processions. -Sound-

At rehearsal they give us a thrill. How much more- on the great Day itself- will visitors excitedly exclaim "Aren't they just wonderful!"

Over now to ~~XXXXXX~~ where Canada's famous "Mounties" are rehearsing their popular musical ride, before leaving for Britain to take part in the Royal Tournament, ~~XXXXXX~~ and the Coronation festivities.

Four officers- Korean veterans- members of Her Majesty's Escort- parade in the black and gold of the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery. ~~Specifically chosen for their service background, they will doubtless reflect the greatest credit upon their homeland.~~

And from far-off Sydney- New South Wales- members of the Royal Papuan and New Guinea Constabulary- provide Australia's most unusual ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ contingent-- worthy representatives of their countries' contribution to the Coronation.

Arriving in the "Queen Elizabeth" at Southampton- another ^{visitor} ~~XXXXXX~~ from the Far East-- Prince Akihito- the Crown Prince of Japan- who is to represent his father- the Emperor Hirohito- at the Coronation.

The 19 year-old Prince will be the guest of the Queen. ~~XXXXXX~~
