Universities defeat Japan-

International football occasion at Southall, when a first-ever visiting Japanese Universities soccer team met a side raised from all the Universities of Britain.

After kicking off, the Leam(playing in white shirts)Jap quickly went into the attack- but fixed found a spirited/defence

British Universities scored their first goal through inside-right Welsh cap Phil Woosnam And Goal No 2 quickly followed from a watkaplace well-placed shot by left-winger Brian Harvey

The second-half-- and with their backs to the wall, the Japs were tough in attack- but not so tough as their British opponents- who, with five internationals- ran out winners by 2-0.

And away in New South Wales- the third international test-between Australia and China -was fought out at Sydney__G+T JOT J THOUT INCIDENT
