Supply Minister with Malaya's Jungle Patrols- Sept IIth. '53.

While visiting Malaya- en route for Australia- Mr Duncan Sandys--Minister of Supply- inspected Jungle Patrol of the Somerset Regiment.

Here he saw pictures, recalling their proud captureof Lau Cheng- Communist Commander of South Selangor.

Later, Mr Sandys went up into the hills, to watch a by members of the Special Air Service Regiment

Southwards- to Malacca, where the new Chief of the ancient Naning Tribe, accompanied by his retinue- climbed the traditional hill to pray- before his installation.

With incense-laden supplication, the Dato- as he is called- . sought guidance from his ancestors.

Then thex - a salutation- from a salvo of guns Leaving the hill, the Dato made his way to the historic well, where he was to partakexefithexeerementalixhath take his ceremonial bath And tribal leaders paid homage to their newly-appointed kribal head- 18th in a succession flating back to the 17th century