

Indo-China

Indo-China - where, flying forty-seven missions in seven days - B.26 bombers attacked Viet-Minh bases and lines of communication in the North Annam region. /

On the ground, too, French Union forces were on the move - crushing rebel pockets of resistance in the Tien-Lang area of the Red River Delta - before the expected Autumn offensive. Latest reports claim that an enemy battalion has been destroyed, and over two hundred prisoners taken. /