

Mr Eden leaves for Berlin -

Jan 22nd. '54.

Before Leaving London Airport to join his French and American counter-parts for the Big Four Talks in Germany, Britain's Foreign Secretary spoke ~~to~~ ^{in front of} ~~the~~ ^{the} cameras. ~~During his speech~~ ^{During his speech} ~~Mr Eden~~ ^{Mr Eden} spoke ~~of~~ ^{of} his hopes for the vital Conference-- (Sound)-

~~Before the actual conference begins,~~ ^{official talks begin} Mr Eden will discuss the Western attitude with M. Bidault and Mr Dulles. ~~(Sound)~~

~~So the hopes of Britain, and indeed the Free World - go with~~
~~Mr Eden, on his mission to try and ensure lasting Peace for mankind.~~

So, the hopes of Great Britain, and ^{the Commonwealth} ~~the~~ nations, go with Mr Eden on his mission to find a solution to many urgent problems.