

Austrian Foreign Minister-

Vienna-- where Dr Figl- Austrian Foreign Minister- left for Berlin to join the Four Foreign Ministers in their discussions on the Austrian Treaty. Before leaving, Dr Figl said that, given goodwill, agreement on this important ~~question~~ question, could be achieved.

Carnival Cars-

Italy- where in the timber yards of Viareggio, 500 workmen are preparing for the town's annual carnival.

They're making cars, (in the form of comedy figures), out of old papers, strong enough to hold 100 passengers each.

~~It is an~~ unique craftsmanship- handed down for centuries from father to son.

Chinese New Year-

America - where San Francisco's Chinatown welcomes ~~it~~ in the New Year, as beauty plays second fiddle to the beast, in the tribal dragon-dances, which herald the year 4652~~0~~ in the ancient Chinese calendar.

The rattle of fire-crackers may terrify a few ~~youngsters~~ youngsters, but it also scares away evil spirits.

It's nice to think that, though this celebration appears to be nearly 3000 years ahead of our time, the largest/^{Chinese}community outside Asia, still enjoys a simple street carnival.

Rodeo-

Yes- it's America again- where at ^{the} Palm Springs rodeo, cowboys show the way to ride a bronco and actually stay on it. But the Brahma bulls have different ideas- for after throwing their victim, they ~~then show the point of their horns.~~ ^{get very rough} BUT IT DOESN'T HURT - _{slow men pointed out approval}

THESE COWBOYS ARE TOUGH!
