

Wheat Store-

America-- Obsolete merchant ^{ships} help to solve the problem of storing 30 million bushels of surplus wheat.

With the covers off, the empty holds receive shower after shower of golden grain. Freighters left to rust, ~~become~~ become a floating ware-house to carry a new and precious cargo.

Tornado-

America again-- Death and destruction - the all too familiar aftermath of twisting ~~tornadoes~~ ^{that streaked} ~~striking~~ across Central and Western Georgia. At least eight people killed--- and damage running to millions of dollars. ~~Scores of homes were~~ ^{wiped out-} ~~destroyed~~ - in this latest freak of relentless Nature.

Rio Carnival--

South America-- Rio de Janeiro-- ~~capital~~ capital of Brazil- one of the world's most fabulous cities- celebrates four glorious days of Carnival. A gala ball attended by ^{Hollywood} stars straight from Sao Paulo's film festival.

June Haver and Fred MacMurray were among the merrymakers- and so was lovely Irene Dunne. Ann Miller's enjoying herself and there's Walter Pidgeon. Hollywood stars scintillating ^{to} the sparkling ^{TUNES} ~~of~~ of Rio's gayest hours.
