Kenya, Malaya, and Australia-

Following East Africa -- Before leaving Kenya, his announcement of new constit--utional reforms - Mr Oliver Lyttelton was chief guest at an Agricultural Show in the Line Reserve.

For the benefit of Britain's Colonial Secretary, colourfully-dressed from this remote part of the country, performed c rhythmae dences. Wakamba warriors, too competed in an archery contest. And Mr Lyttelton presented a shield to the best team はなりませる。

Malaya -- In remote villages of this trouble apot, the St John ambulance Brigade have set up flourishing clinics- where the sick and wounded are cared for by a band of devoted miraing mursing sisters

Lady Mountbatten- the indefatigable President-in-Chief- who has done so much for the relief of world suffering, made her third inspection tour in four years. She was full of praise for all she saw. Australia -- The Royal Tour shifts to Brisbane - third city of the Common--wealth, and capital of Queensland.

see of a smaller capital soon

a pause to visit Queensland's Shrine of Remembrance, which received Royal tribute to the fallen of two world wars.

Then a drive through the Exhibition Grounds, when terlly to the light-hear ted angel

Yes -- Queensland spoke its welcome with ge flowers- and the accent was certainly on "youth". The children's fragrant gifts seemed to say- "Welcome to the Queen's Own State- Come back and see us again",