

London - Sir Winston at Albert Hall

28th May 1954

London: A rousing overture of loyal cheers welcomed Sir Winston Churchill to the Royal Albert Hall.

The Premier had come to address a Mass Meeting of over six thousand women and their vocal tribute was followed by a floral offering. Red roses and a carnation buttonhole - presented by two young admirers.

During his Address - Sir Winston, ^{SPOKE} ~~was speaking~~ of the hard trials that lie ahead of Britain, ~~when he said:~~ SOUND.

The Premier went on to ^{GIVE WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT} ~~say that a policy of peace through strength was~~ ^{AND} hope for the future. SOUND.
