

London Airport- Sir Winston Churchill leaves for U.S.- 25/6/51-

London--- Walking with jaunty step to the Stratocruiser "Canopus" that will carry him and Mr Eden to Washington as guests of President Eisenhower, Sir Winston Churchill <sup>was joining</sup> ~~joined~~ an old friend.

For it was Canopus that carried him to the Bermuda Conference in December. The last farewells - as the Prime Minister and the Foreign Secretary took leave of their many well-wishers, ~~including~~ Lady Churchill and Mrs Eden, ~~who went to wave good-bye.~~ <sup>WERE THERE TO WAVE GOOD-BYE.</sup>

So the 3700 mile journey began;- and the nation wishes <sup>SIR WINSTON &</sup> ~~them~~ <sup>MR EDEN WELL</sup> ~~well~~ <sup>IN THEIR DISCUSSIONS ON VITAL</sup> ~~at sea~~ <sup>statesmen well,</sup> as they leave to discuss ~~many~~ world problems with the President of the United States.