1 34 "

Scotland: A warm Highland welcome for two young travellers, Prince Charles and Princess anne, arriving from London in the charge of Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother - for their annual summer holiday on Desside.

And there were special cheers for Princess Anne - on the eve of her fourth birthday.

The children were later joined, at Balmoral, by their Mother, who had been making the first visit of her Reign to the East Riding.

in the Highlands.... AND THESE LATEST PICTURES FROM CANADA SHOW.

THE BUKE UKITING AN PLUMINIUM ROLL ON VANDOUSE ISLAND. BACKIN BRITAIN and a service welcome for the Duchess of Kent and her daughter, Princess

Alexandra, arriving at Alexandra, arriving at Sandhurst, for the Passing-Out Parade...

the Duke of Kent (who can be been in the bearing medals) was taking part in the forereign's Parade of the forest o thexamord and about a real in a construction of the service of the construction of the the Sword of Honour to Senior Under-Officer, B.L.G. Kenny of London ...

As a Junior-Cadet, the Duke of Kent took his place in the march-past when over two-hundred cadets paraded before receiving their Sovereign's Commission...