

The famous Vickers-Viscount - the world's first ~~jet~~ turbo-prop jet airliner has landed more huge export orders for Britain.

In London, a contract is counter-signed and sealed for five Viscounts for Central African Airways....while an American airline company has ordered another forty for its internal services - at a cost of sixteen million pounds./

~~ABC~~ news from Japan tells of the re-opening of the giant Mitsubishi Aviation plant... Closed since the end of the war, the factory is to be used in as a maintenance base for America's ~~Far-Eastern~~ ^{ASIAN} Far-Eastern Air Force. Another link in the chain of ~~defence~~ ^{ASIAN} defence./

More pictures of the U.S. Navy's "Vertical Take-off" fighter that we showed in our last Issue. This time, the "Pogo-stick" plane is undergoing horizontal flight tests. It can climb almost vertically, and will soon be making its first tail-landing./

From America, too, comes news of her biggest and longest-ranged jet interceptor-fighter, the "Northrop Scorpion". But this Scorpion carries her sting in the front - 104 rockets in wing-tip pods/- A deadly K.O. punch... NOW WATCH IT AT CLOSER RANGE /

16,000,000