

London: Mr Attlee returns home

2163

24th Sept. 1954

London Airport: Home again - after his thirty-thousand mile world tour, Mr Attlee was welcomed by his daughters, Alison and Felicity...

And completing the happy re-union - Mrs Attlee (who had joined her husband for the latter part of his tour) was soon nursing her nineteen-month old grand-daughter, Jennifer..

As Leader of the Labour Party Delegation to China, Mr Attlee expressed the view that the visit had helped to ease tension, and ^{referred to} ~~outlined~~ Formosa as the biggest problem in the Far East. SOUND

Formosa, ~~of course,~~ is the island stronghold of General Chiang Kai-Shek - the leader of Nationalist China. Our pictures show the General's veteran adviser, Dr Wellington Koo, making a tour of ^{the} Tachen Islands - a Nationalist garrison, five miles off the mainland.

WE SHOW OUR ^{FROM} first pictures ~~of~~ the Island of Quemoy. Despite repeated Communist artillery bombardment - life goes on as usual in the town.

The Island ~~effectively~~ blockades the Communist port of Amoy and is defended by three Divisions, ~~of the Chinese Army~~. An all-out Communist attempt to seize the Island was ^{repulsed} ~~repulsed~~ - five years ago...
