American Awards to Everest Men

12th oct. 54

London: The tribute to the British Everest Expedition, America's Cullum Marshall-Cornwall Gold Medal is presented to General Sir James Marshall - the President of the Royal Geographical Society.

Bronze replicas were received by Brigadier Sir John Hunt, their teads leader, for distribution to the gallant team that "conquered Everest"

Trieste celebrations

Trieste: Celebrations in the Adriatic Port, following we news of the agreement, signed in London, which restores "Zone A" and the City itself, to Italian Rule...

After eleven years, the Italian tricolour flies, once again, from the relace balcony, the signal for enthusiastic demonstrations in the City motor-Cycle Race.

Spain: The start of the Barcelona Grand Prix for 500 c.c. machines International aces fighting for supremacy over the tortuous 21 mile circuit

In the eagly stages, Dickie Dele of Britain and Carlo Bandirola were riding neck and neck in the 53-lap race. Then Dele forged ahead to win - at an average speed of 20121 66.29 miles per hour.

Another massed start the time in words, and they re every heading for the hill country - taking every bump and bruise in their stride of before their advent of winter brings them an arm-chair seat, by the fire a kind of passing-out parade for the rough-riders of the saddle....

But this kind of drill leaves its marked champion) was among the competitors.

Britain was represented by J. Ivor Roberts and Leslie Dixon - the latter who comes from Durham) winning second place in the contest.

Pride of place went to 28 year-old Hugh Barr of Coleraine, Northern Ireland - who ploughed his way to the 1954 World Crown.