Duke at Rubber factory

Birmingham: Visiting Fort Dunlop, the famous Midland tyre factory, the Duke of Edinburgh spent more than three hours around the production lines, watching the many intricate processes where in the making of tyres and inner tubes...

2

HIS Royal Highness was particularly interested in a rubber car-wing and a frogman's suit, demonstrated by a former Naval diver, who is now employed at the works ...