

THE PRIME MINISTER ESCORTED

Woodford: ~~Escorted~~ Lady Churchill to a birthday presentation party - given by his constituents. Sir Winston Churchill (who recently completed thirty years of Parliamentary service to the district) spoke <sup>of our</sup> ~~about the~~ country's great blessing - freedom of speech ~~and the~~ avile of one party government. SOUND

Then came the presentation - a portrait of Lady Churchill, given to the Premier ~~by the Divisional Conservative Association,~~ to celebrate his 80th birthday, and to mark his many years of local, national and international service.

A touching moment as Sir Winston shares the pleasure of a most acceptable gift with his wife. The portrait in oils was painted by the well-known artist, Mr John Napper. ~~and Sir Winston with the thought~~

Meanwhile, the Prime Minister's London home has become the centre of National and world-wide tribute as messages of congratulation and kind wishes reassure ~~_____~~ <sup>HIM</sup> of his unique place in all our hearts
