London: The Party season is in full swing - especially for 250 orphans.

The tables are laden with good things and there's fun to follow - with

"Archie Andrews" determined to make himself heard SOUND.

ARRIVATIVE DELLE

of course, a party's liable to become a riot when Norman Wisdom appears

at least there's clustered by his young admirers, the occasion becomes a bun fight, with the comedian fighting fight to get some tear before leading a seasonal sing-song in which everybody joins Sound.

And to round off a wonderful party; there's an appropriate gift to remind the youngsters of happy hours with the sters.

Facing the New Year with Spring in his step - Mr Joseph Griffiths - a

incomite a sirulizate a sais a significate a retired schoolmaster, greets his 100th birthday with his usual two-mile stroll.

Among the many callers at his Wembley home was film starlet Jill Adams - happy who was soon learning the secret of long and kappi life sound