

Upper Bavaria: The great Olympic ski-jump at Garmisch-Partenkirchen is a nerve-racking test for even the most experienced Continental acers.

Falls were frequent during this international event - ~~held in the Tenth Winter Sports Week.~~

The contest was watched by thirty thousand people - and the winner, for the second time, was Eino Kirjonen of Finland - with a jump of over 260 feet.

Boxing in Hamburg - with Alex Buxton, Britain's Light-Heavyweight Champion meeting Germany's <sup>Gustav</sup> ~~heavy~~ Scholz - a middleweight contender for the European title.

In round two - Buxton puts Scholz down for a count of eight.

Then the German got up - and gave Alex a dose of his own medicine.

In Round eight - Buxton was again on the receiving end.

Up again - the British champion just didn't see this ~~vicious~~ vicious left coming!

Saved by the bell - the Watford boy then boxed his way out of trouble - and conceded the verdict to Scholz - on points.

And in Monte Carlo - ~~the points have been totted up after the toughest~~

~~the toughest rally on record.~~ Prince Rainier presents the coveted awards, AFTER THE TOUGHEST RALLY ON RECORD.

A sweeping success for British cars - A Sunbeam sports saloon, driven by two Norwegians, was first in the General Classification - subject to official confirmation.

Eleventh in the ~~overall competition~~ overall competition - and winners of the Ladies Cup, were Miss Sheila van Damm and her two team-mates - also driving a Sunbeam

Back in Britain - Miss van Damm tells her story of a tough job well done SOUND.

~~the European champion~~

~~these~~ AND Britain's record output of over a million ~~vehicles~~ vehicles last year - ~~proves~~ PROVES that we can combine/quantity with the quality that wins the toughest motoring trial.