Portugal: The Royal Wedding

E/

15th Feb. 55

Portugal: Besieged by Italian wellwishers, Princess Maria Fia and Prince Alexander of Mugoslavia receive gifts on the eve of their wedding. (THE GROUS FATHER)

G.B. 2204

joins the happy couple of the terrace of his villa. The Royal wedding brings a reminder of a proud past to the Titt little fishing village of Cascais - for it was once the summer residence of Portuguese Kings. 3 And now - among the two thousand guests officially invited were over a hundred members of Europe's Royal managers Families. arriving with her Father, the Bride wore a gown of embroidered satin and a diamond diadem must room for every guest in the tiny church made good vantage points. so it seems that ladders, The ceremony was conducted by the Parish Priest of Cascais and lasted thirty-five minutes. The Groom - a cousin of Ex-King Peter - was once a He is the nephew of the Duchess of Kent, who were B.E.A. Pilot.an ATTENDED THIS fairytake wedding that united two of surope's Royal Houses.

B.F.M. rilot (confirmed with D.F.M.) 15th Feb.