Easter at Portsmouth meant --- the Navy's here! Portsmouth saw the ships --- and met the men.

Kempton Park --- and big crowds to watch the holiday Programme of racing. With no newspapers to give the in tips --- it was a rare chance for Prince Monolulu to become Prince Monopoly. Third race of the second day was won by Running Water.

And Running water was the order of the day at Teddington --- for the Easter meeting of the Tamasia Club.

Not for away, Hampton Court proved as popular as ever with the holiday crowds.

Herne Hill --- a strong continental challenge for the first meeting of the season. Here's the Five Mile Gold Column Race, emateurs only.

And for the second year in succession, the winner was Keith Harrison of Birmingham.

x Now --- the Thousand Metres International Sprint --- a clash of the top amateurs of seven nations.

Winner egain was Keith Harrison --- a mighty victory over Down Tiefenthaler of Switzerland. Harrison is Champion of Champions.

How to Glorious Goodwood --- and a crowd of speed-lovers about fifty thousand strong included Aintree's Mrs Topham. Fine weather and thrilling sport combined, to make this one of the beak meetings to date. The big race was the Richmond Trophy for Formula One.

In the second lap Stirling Hoss, driving his own Maserati, was leading the field --- hotly pursued by Roy Salvadori. --- also in Maserati.

Now look out for a complete apin round by Salvaderi.

Vital seconds were being lost --- but Salvadori got back into the race. / and driving like a man inspired, he made up vital second after vital second --- and won.

Hear Chiddingfold --- motor-cycle trials. What some of the competitors said, (like the newspapers, couldn't be printed.
