

Argentina - President Peron

Argentina: Against the unhappy background of a clash between Church and State, President Peron addressed a huge gathering from the balcony of the Governmental Palace.

The President advised the workers to be calm, in a bitter dispute that threatens to dis-establish the Roman Catholic Church.

Scots Greys

Brussels - During a tour of the Continent, the Regimental Band and Pipers of the Royal Scots Greys joined the British Legion in paying tribute to Belgium's Unknown Warrior.

This famous British Regiment played an important part in the liberation of Belgium, in the last war.

Captain Scott

London Airport: ~~Flying to London from New York~~ ^{PASSING} the statue of Alcock and Brown - piloted by another pioneer of Atlantic flight. He is Captain Stuart Scott - who has become the first British pilot to complete five hundred crossings of the Atlantic.

Nautilus trial

America: The world's first atomic submarine, the "Nautilus" sets out on a demonstration cruise, with Admiral Carney, Chief of Naval Operations, and other top-ranking officials on board. (2)

The "Nautilus" can cruise round the world underwater, without refuelling, and when she turns at speed - every crew member is warned to.....

Hold Tight!

Indo-China

South-East Asia: The vital port of Haiphong passes under Communist control as French troops withdraw, under the terms of the Geneva Agreement, that brought an end to the Indo-China war, last July.

The final days of the French administration were marked by several demonstrations - which were quickly quelled by the police.

The end of an unhappy chapter era in French colonial history.