

Russian Dancers entertained

2nd December 1955

London: Arriving at a private ~~cinema~~ cinema in Wardour Street, Film star Norman Wisdom received a colourful greeting - before joining his newest fans - the visiting Russian Folk Dancers - for a special showing of one of his films.

The cockney comedian has been invited to play in Moscow and through an interpreter, Norman told the Russians what he hopes to do a Russian Spokesman assured him of a warm welcome when he gets there

SOUND

~~But no doubt, Norman will star in his own particular field of entertainment~~
~~entertainment~~ SO NORMAN and dances his way into Russian hearts.... even if he is a trifle stiff the following morning.... / SOUND TO END .
