

Thirty-five thousand fans at Upton Park, and Cardiff supporters evidently thought this Fourth Round Tie was a tough bite of Cup luck.

~~in white sleeves.~~

Home cheers for West Ham. After defeating Proud Preston, they fear no foe... ~~A~~

Now Cardiff - hoping to avenge a cup defeat here - ~~last~~ ^{five} years ago.

In the centre circle, Skipper Allison wins the toss. First strike for the ~~Hammers~~ ^{Hammers}.

Full of confidence, Cardiff kick off, with Trevor Ford their fiery spear-head...

But the first thrust is blunted. West Ham come storming back ~~a~~ nice pass to Dare - and the Hammers are a goal up in five minutes.

An opening shock for the Welshmen - but "Trefor Bach" puts them level.

Swinging the ball about - West Ham always look dangerous - and Dick puts them back in front.

The second half - West Ham leading two-one - with Hooper leading the Welshmen a merry dance - inspiring attack after attack.

And Two-one was the final score - ~~and~~ spurred on by memories of that first Wembley final - the Hammers are in the running.

Will you check up No. 5 Allison in togs-up. ✓
