Melbourne: ~~Dramatic incident~~ during the Australian Championships at the new Olympic Stadium. The world's fastest miler, John Landy, stops to assist Ron Clark, ~~a fellow Victorian, who~~ who has fallen during the Mile event.

Losing at least five seconds, Landy then goes in pursuit of the leaders - and watch him go!

And
1 Landy wins, in four minutes four-point-two seconds. ~~So his good Samaritan act may have prevented Australia's first four-minute mile or a new world record.~~

In London, a couple of "mighty atoms" display fistic energy in the Schools Boxing championships - sponsored by "The Star"

These spirited pupils need no lessons in non-stop aggression, ~~and~~ J. Graham of Fleetwood, ^{won this bout} was the winner. ^{M.P}

~~For the second year~~ Mrs Braddock watched these finals which featured seventy youngsters from all parts of Britain.

In a senior bout, P.J. Shevlane of Stepney beat R.F. Nicholson of Hampshire on points.

In the Calcutta Cup Rugby battle, Scotland (in dark ^{jerseys} ~~stripes~~) were ^{hoping} ~~able~~ for their first victory over England since 1950. But when Williams scored this try - England were six points up.

~~But~~ Scotland came fighting back - and if their goal-kickers had matched the skill of G.D. Stevenson in scoring this magnificent try - they would never have lost by eleven points to six.
