

Launch of new "Empress"

London: A man who has devoted his life to railway locomotion, Mr Norris Crump, President of the Canadian Pacific Railways, inspects a British recordbreaker, "The Mallard" - and took over the controls during its special journey to Newcastle.

The "Mallard" was carrying guests for the launching, by Lady Eden, of the new C.P.R. liner, "Empress of England"

The biggest passenger ship to be built on the Tyne since the war, the new vessel is a sister ship ~~(identical in size and performance)~~ with the

to the Empress of Britain - which recently ~~made~~ ^{made} her maiden crossing.

Her machinery ^{is being built} ~~is under construction~~ at Barrow - where the first "Empress" was ~~launched~~ ^{launched} - 65 years ago.

Lord Mayor with "Ike"

Washington: A distinguished envoy conveying the good wishes of London to President Eisenhower, at the White House, is the Lord Mayor, Alderman Ackroyd, ~~making an official~~ making an official visit to the U.S., in return for one made ₂ to London, by the Mayor of New York.

Morocco

Morocco: The continued attacks by rebel forces on loyal villages have brought counter-measures by the French military forces. Local villages are being supplied with arms and encouraged to form defence-groups - much on the lines of our war-time "home guard"

Already, the home-defence villagers have proved their courage and ~~loyalty~~ loyalty ~~in combat~~ and have received flags of commendation.

U.S. Assault Craft

America: First action pictures of the U.S.S. Carronade - a new craft that would bring incredible hitting-power to an invasion fleet.

Those deadly rockets soften up the beach defences - paving the way for the first wave of shock troops. On this occasion, U.S. Marines on manoeuvres.
